€20 per person including refreshments

Guided Tour of Drimnagh Castle . Ireland's only moated castle. with Peter Pearson, Council Member and Architectural Historian

Drimnagh Castle owes it's foundation to the Barnwell family who built the castle c.1215 . The Castle changed owners several times . In 1670 Lieutenant Colonel Philip Fernley, clerk of the Irish House of Commons bought the property for £90. Other owners were Henry, Earl of Shelbourne , the ancestor of the Marquis of Lansdowne, Joseph Hatch a successful dairy farmer , councillor and alderman. The restoration began some thirty seven years ago spearheaded by Peter Pearson There is an excellent article by Peter Pearson in the Spring Edition of the Irish Arts Review Magazine (March-May 2022)

Refreshments will be served after the tour.
