A Spring Series of Lectures will take place in the United Arts Club, 3, Upper Fitzwilliam Street, Dublin 2
All lectures will commence at 7.30 pm

Lecture 1: Mr Peter Pearson: 7.30 pm Tuesday 25th February 2014

Title: Fragments of a City: Decorative Dublin Revealed

Our speaker has been collecting architectural salvage for over 30 years and has a unique insight into the extraordinary skill and refinement of building in the 18th and 19th centuries. His talk will be illustrated with examples from his collection.

Lecture 2: Mr David Davison: 7.30 pm Tuesday 11th March 2014

Title: Photography in Ireland: Past and Present

Mr Davison has spent his life documenting Ireland, particularly architecture, through photography and he has also collected a lot of early Irish photographs. He will be sharing his treasure trove with us.

Lecture 3: Mr Lanto Synge: 7.30 pm Tuesday 25th March 2014

Title: Fine English Needlework: Styles and Techniques

Until recently Mr Synge was director of Malletts in London where he specialised in furniture and needlework. He will be bringing some remarkable samples of embroidery to illustrate his talk.

Cost per lecture: €10.00 – All 3 lectures: €25.00
Members are encouraged to bring guests.
Lectures are followed by tea and dry biscuits
